

There has to be some alternative to raising revenue for transportation infrastructure other than tolls. Toll booths are safety hazards, dramatically slow traffic, contribute to air pollution, and are such a nuisance. I would rather pay a few cents more for gas tax than have to deal with toll booths. Raising trucking taxes/tariffs would be another revenue source.

CC Cantor
27 Oak Street
Rockville, CT 06066